p. 188, l. 39. Delete 'Member of Parliament 1361'. The John Peche who was M.P. and Mayor in 1361–2 was a Fishmonger. Cf. Stow, ed. Kingsford, vol. i, pp. 214, 240, ii. 167. Possibly he was son of the Draper.
p. 190, l. 29. After Alderman of Bassishaw 1363 read Mayor 1367–8.
p. 196, l. 2. For words we have no instance read one instance has been given me by Mr. Lipson 'Johannes de Essexia' in 1348–9. Cf. Gras, Early English Customs System, p. 415.
p. 211, col. i, last line. 'Anno decimo.' This is wrong, inserted by later hand; should be 'anno quarto decimo'. Alwyn died on September 19, 1212. Cf. Dictionary National Biography.
p. 213, col. 2, l. 20. For T. Gedney read J. Gedney.
p. 225, l. 10. After No. 5112 add: Note 3. An actual impression of this seal is attached to a bond in connexion with the sale of tenements in St. Edmunds to William Chester, 1551, which had been charged with the Chantry founded by Maude at Vyne. Cf. vol. ii of this work, p. 343. The tenements subsequently came into the hands of the Merchant Taylors, and the seal is in their possession.

Appendix IX, p. 351, note 1. After words A. viii. 121 add +389, Evidences of Titles, pp. 1 ff.

p. 364, l. 29. Delete 'Master ffabyan Alderman'. His name is inserted among aldermen of 1493 in a later hand. His name appears among the freemen (cf. p. 365, second column, l. 1), and is then struck out, no doubt when he was elected alderman. We do not know exactly when he was elected alderman, but certainly some time towards the end of 1494. Cf. Beaven, Aldermen, vol. i, p. 155.

VOL. II

p. 5, note, l. 9. Before the words in 1515 read Bradwell in 1512–13 (Wardens' Accounts, 1512–13, fo. 2 a) and Linsted.

p. 5, l. 10. For the words John Bradwell's successor read Nicholas Hancock, who succeeded John Bradwell as Prior in 1524.

p. 7, l. 1. Mr. Browne, a member of the Cutlers' as well as of the Drapers' Company, tells me that knives were not in those days provided by the host, but that each guest brought his own, and that they were often called 'case knives' because they were carried in a case. The first notice I have come across of knives is in the Wardens' Accounts for 1602–3. Cf. vol. ii, p. 495. But these were probably used for carving.

p. 18, note 1, l. 2. Brown was elected Alderman of Farringdon Without in 1523 and Farringdon Within in 1524. Beaven, vol. i, pp. 146, 156.

p. 36, l. 13. For the words from to maintain thirteen to wishes read in St. Olave's, Hart Street on trust to distribute bread and coals to the poor of St. Edmund's, Lombard Street and St. Michael's, Cornhill. But in all probability the Company never held these tenements according to the proviso of Milburn's will that if these 'poyntes' were not fulfilled the tenements should remain in the hands of the Mayor and Corporation.[3] There is, however, no record in the City archives of these lands ever having been in the hands of the City, or of their having distributed the said charity But in all probability the Drapers declined to accept the trust. With regard to the almshouses near the Tower in the same parish Milburn granted them by deed-poll to John Dolphin, 1534–5, cf. Deed Poll, March 5, 26 H. VIII, A. vii. 45. In March 1534 Dolphin devised them with other tenements to the Drapers' Company, on trust to repair the said almshouses and to pay the thirteen almsmen £7 12*s.* 10*d.* every month (A. iv. 160). The first payment by the Company is in that year. Cf. Renter's Accounts, 1534–5, fo. 6a. From a note to Dolphin's will it appears that it never took effect in regard that Dolphin enfeoffed in his lifetime John Clarke, another draper, of all the lands mentioned in the will, and it was not till 2 Edward VI that John Clarke finally devised these lands to the Company for the maintenance of the almspeople. Cf. vol. iii, p. 496.

p. 36, note 4, l. 1. Delete Rep. 7, p. 123.

p. 44, note 1. Delete Marryat or.

p. 55, note, l. 4. Heriot was also M. P. 1483.

p. 55, note, l. 6. Lawrence Aylmer was only Mayor from March to October 1508. He was a poor man, and, as was the case with poor men, he was put in to fill up in the case of a vacancy. He subsequently became an almsman of the Company. In this way he escaped the expense of the Lord Mayor's Show.

p. 55, note, l. 11. William Calley was M.P. in 1512 also.

Delete p. 65, note 3. p. 66, l. 25, Hazlitt to p. 67, l. 13 the Company. p. 84, last two lines. p. 209, l. 4 from bottom, we are to p. 210, l. 6, tenements adjoining. All these statements are incorrect. Cf. vol. iii, p. 491, note 3.

p. 112, note 2. After words seven died add between Dec. 1555 and Oct. 1556.

p. 120, l. 22. For Butcher read Arrow-maker.

p. 124, l. 29. Mr. Beaven points out that a better reason than the loss of prestige is that there was no alderman of sufficient seniority of standing for the Mayoralty. At the accession of Edward VI there was only one Draper alderman, Roche, and he had passed the chair in 1540–1. Of those elected during the reigns of Edward VI and Mary only one, Lambard (elected in 1547), died 1554 before he had reached the chair by seniority. Of the remaining three, Lowen retired in the year of his election, 1555, while Chester, elected Alderman in 1553, and Champion in 1556, became Mayors in due course of seniority in Elizabeth's reign.

p. 124, note 4. For Appendix xxii read xxxi, 6.

p. 136, note 2, l. 12. Delete Sir; Monoux was not a knight. Cf. Beaven, Aldermen, vol. ii, p. 22.

p. 182, three lines from bottom. Pullison was four times Master of the Drapers and Mayor 1584–5. He was also a Member of the Company of Spain and Portugal and of the Eastland Company.

p. 194, l. 16, p. 216, l. 3. Wilbraham was acting deputy Sergeant for Kirton at this time, cf. Guildhall, Rep. 21, p. 251, 16 Dec. 28 Eliz. 25, fo. 265.

p. 202, note 1, l. 2. Blackwell was the Common or Town Clerk of London from 1539 to 1570.

p. 206, l. 9. For words No further action to Nevertheless read: In January 1600 the Queen appointed a commission 'for the avoiding of the trouble and charges that grow by concealments' so that 'her loving subjects might compound for the security of their estates and a perpetual quiet.' [Cf. Rep. H, fo. 260 b, Firth and Rait, Tudor and Stuart Proclamations, vol. i, p. 102.] In all probability the annotated copy of 'the original certificate given in the Appendix vol. ii, p. 343, was prepared for that commission, but no settlement seems to have been made before the Queen's death.

p. 206, note 5, l. 9. After £287 add of which £5 went to their solicitor. But they subsequently had to pay an additional £82 8*s*. 4*d*. At end of note read 'on this question', cf. vol. iii, p. 84.

p. 216, l. 7. For Bride read Bird or Burd.

p. 219, l. 15. Mr. Hopkinson is, however, of opinion that this order was a concession to the aldermen, as it was in the Merchant Taylors' Company. It should be remembered that the office of Master was considered rather a burden than a privilege.

Wm. Garway. Elected 1593
} but did not serve.

Delete the following:

John de Pulteney. 1318–19. He was one of the few Mayors who were never Sheriffs. He has been sometimes confounded with John Poyntel. Cf. Beaven, Aldermen, ii, p. xxv.

John Boteler or Butler. 1420–1. There were two John Botelers, one, a Mercer, who was Sheriff 1419–20, and the other, a Draper, Sheriff 1420–1. Cf. Letter Bk. I, fos. 238, 254.

Ralph Holland. 1429–30.
Rich. Chester. 1484–5.
Wm. Broun. 1504–5.

The correct dates of the following are:

John de Mytford. 1364–5.
John Boteler. 1420–1. Letter Bk. I, fo. cclv.
Sir Wm. Stockker. 1473–4. Letter Bk. L, fo. 95.
John Stocker. 1477–8. Letter Bk. L, fo. 129 b.
Wm. White. 1482–3. Letter Bk. L, fo. 178 b.
Robert Watts. 1503. He died in November.

It should be noted that Fabyan's dates are wrong except when he agrees with Stow, and in the cases of Whytingham 1419–20 and John Boteler, 1420–1.

p. 484. The dates in the list of Benefactors are according to 'old style'.

p. 484, l. 3. After Drapers' Hall add and in +418, +435, +436.

p. 484, col. 3, l. 4. For words £21 12*s.* 6*d. to* almshouses read to buy so much landes as will countervayle the yearly alms of Mr. Milborne. Cf. the controversy with the executors, Rep. F, 1581, pp. 133, 146, 166, 182, 191, 197 a, 217; 1583, pp. 243 b, 261; 1584, pp. 271 b, 272 a.

p. 485, col. 1. Note to R. Cooper. He also left certain messuages to his descendants on condition that they annually distributed coal among the poor of certain parishes in London. If the condition was not fulfilled the trust was to lapse to the Drapers, and, if they failed to carry it out, the trust was to be taken over by the City. This trust never fell to the Drapers although there was some inquiry into the matter in 1660. Cf. Rep. +132, pp. 245 a b, 248 b.
